Thanks to this initiative, all students from Transitional Kindergarten (TR) through 5th grade were provided with regular, hands-on exposure to a broad range of artistic disciplines. Through rotating sessions led by professional teaching artists from Inner City Arts, students explored: Visual Arts (painting, drawing, and sculpture), Theater Arts (improvisation, character-building, and storytellin), Dance and Movement, Media Arts, Music and Sound Design Each session was designed to engage students in age-appropriate, standards-aligned learning experiences that emphasized creativity, collaboration, and self-expression. The program not only enriched our students' artistic literacy but also supported their social-emotional development and confidence. Throughout the year, students proudly created original works of art, many of which were featured in a year-end school-wide Art Showcase attended by student violes, implication, and self-expression.
