1. Narrative description of the Proposition 28 arts education programs funded (2500 character limit).

In the 2024–2025 school year, our charter middle school strategically utilized Proposition 28 funds to invest in the long-term development of a sustainable and high-quality arts education program by hiring an Instructional Coach focused on the arts. Rather than directly funding student programming, this approach centered on building teacher capacity, aligning with our school's vision of integrating the arts into core academic instruction and school culture.

The Arts Instructional Coach played a pivotal role in supporting classroom teachers across subject areas to incorporate arts-based strategies into their curriculum, Leading professional development sessions focused on visual and performing arts integration, culturally responsive teaching, and project-based learning. Collaborating with department leads to design interdisciplinary units that include artistic processes such as design thinking, storytelling, and media production, Coaching individual teachers through lesson planning, co-teaching, and reflective practice to build confidence and competence in arts integration, Fostering partnerships with local arts organizations and identifying opportunities for future student-centered programming
